

Please do not pre-empt State Rights with a Federal telephone privacy law. The existing law in Indiana is working very well! If you must have federal legislation please make sure that it is as restrictive as the Indiana Law, or even more so, not less. I'd suggest that you use the Indiana Law as a starting point and not dilute it. I'm sure the lobbying efforts for this laxer law are intense, but stand up for the American consumer.